The Union County Farmer's Market will begin May 16 and will conclude on October 31. The market will be open to sellers of Union County and to residents of adjoining counties. Produce sold must be produced in the seller's county of residence.

All fresh summer produce sold must be harvested within 24 hours of the market day sold. Charges per market - each space used will cost $10. Persons sharing one space will still pay a $10 minimum charge. There is no selling charge to members of the Farmer's Market Association or to youth members of either 4-H or FFA selling project produce.

To join the Union County Farmer's Market Association, return this form with your $30 ($50 for 2 spaces) membership payment. For more information on the Union County Farmer's Market, contact Kathy Custer or Carlton Rausch (See above) or the Union County Extension Office 937.644.8117 or 800.589.8584.
